Sales, Style Show Raise $1,283 For IODE Group

The frescoed walls of the Strathcona Hotel's Terra Cotta Room set the scene for the annual dinner meeting of the Royal Roads Chapter, IODE, last evening.

Following a tasty chicken and lemon pie dinner, members took part in the business meeting at which last year's projects were reviewed.

The secretary's report showed that 10 regular meetings had been held in 1958 with an average attendance of 17 members, in addition there were eight sewing meetings and two dinner meetings.

MAIN PROJECT

The group's main money-raising project was the sponsoring of the Wynne Shaw Dance Review last June in conjunction with the Sir Matthew Baillie Begbie Chapter.

Other money-raising efforts included two rummage sales, raffles, sale of greeting cards and a fashion show with the Esquimalt Chapter. Total amount raised was $1,283.

MEMORIAL BURSARY

Principal disbursements went towards the George H. Gardiner Memorial Bursary for Michael Gerry, student at UBC, and for Miss Sharon Kirk, a pupil of Wynne Shaw, for a five-week course at the Vancouver Summer Ballet School. Other projects supported were the CNIB Villas' water garden, the juvenile detention home and two patients at the Veteran's Hospital.

The report from the Services at Home and Abroad secretary showed that $552 had been spent on welfare work and $304 used for educational projects.

NEW OFFICERS

Following the annual reports, the new officers were introduced.

Mrs. D. E. Teng was re-elected president; Mrs. J. C. F. Blowey, first vice-regent; Mrs. E. P. Angus, second vice-regent; Mrs. M. Zabel, secretary; Mrs. E. Whitmore, treasurer; Miss H. Rattray, educational secretary; Mrs. M. Lejeune, Echoes; Mrs. L. E. Trahan, standard bearer; Mrs. B. T. Shaw, Services at Home and Aboard secretary; Mrs. E. Crawford, Mrs. L. Brubacker and Mrs. W. Woodward, councillors.

Dollar Dessert Pancakes

During the Lenten Season each year, pancakes take the spotlight. For this reason that a special day was originally set aside for pancakes—Pancake Day.

This year Pancake Day falls on Feb. 10th, which is, as always, a Tuesday.

Special pancake flours have been developed to give greater lightness and fluffiness to pancakes—and the modern housewife is no longer content to serve them in their original form alone, but uses many tempting variations.

PANCAKES

One cup milk, 1 egg, 1 tablespoon liquid or melted shortening, ½ cup flaked or shredded coconut (optional), 1 cup buttermilk pancake mix.

TOPPING:

One-half cup cultured sour cream, 2 tablespoons sugar, ½ cup crushed fresh or frozen raspberries, drained. Whole raspberries.

For the pancakes, place milk, egg and shortening in a shaker or glass jar. (If melted shortening is used, add after buttermilk mix). Add coconut and buttermilk pancake mix; shake vigorously 10 to 15 times or until batter is fairly smooth. Pour 1 tablespoon batter for each pancake onto a hot, lightly greased griddle. Bake to a golden brown, turning only once. Serve with chilled raspberry topping (made by combining sour cream, sugar and crushed raspberries.) Garnish each serving with a few whole raspberries if desired.

Pretty Bride Arrayed In White Taffeta Gown

St. Mary's Anglican Church, set with huge baskets of white stocks was the scene of the recent wedding of Miss Margery Ellis and Mr. Stanley Keith Kellow.

The Rev. H. J. Jones performed the double-ring ceremony. Organist was Richard Proudman.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Crawford Ellis, Victoria, was given in marriage by her father. Groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Don Kellow.

For her wedding, Miss Ellis chose a gown of white chrome-spun taffeta, cut on Empire lines with a lace-appliqued skirt and French lace bodice with scalloped neckline and lily-point sleeves. A white lace headband held a fingertip veil and she carried a cascade of red roses.

Her attendants were dressed in red velvet and carried cascades of red and white carnations. Maid-of-honor was Miss Kathleen Stobart and bridesmaids, Miss Margaret de Boucier and Miss Pearl Andre.

Acting as best man was Mr. Roy Kellow. Mr. Eric Kellow and Mr. Dennis Whysker ushered.

Holyrood House was the scene of the reception at which the toast to the bride was given by Mr. J. A. Rowe.

Leaving for a Calgary honeymoon, the bride chose a suit in imperial blue with 10 accessories and a white rose corsage.

The couple will live in Victoria upon their return.

CONTACT LENSES

What do they cost? What are they made of? Can they be worn all the time? More people are interested in and more people are wearing Contact Lenses than ever before, consequently we are asked many questions every day about these miracles of plastic. We have prepared a pamphlet which answers most of the questions you might ask. It is free and we would be glad to send you one.

Family Dinner This Sunday?

Planning to gather up the clan for a family dinner this Sunday? Why not tickle their taste buds with some new arrivals on your grocer's shelves — fresh fruits and vegetables at prices you can afford.

★ ★ ★

New in from Florida is a little-known orange — the Temple variety. These meaty, almost-sectionless oranges are very popular in Cuba and Central America and make a dandy breakfast or dessert treat, sliced thin and sprinkled with fruit sugar. They sell by the pound for about six for 49 cents.

Hurrah! Fresh green, in-the-pod peas are here from California. Of good quality considering it's the beginning of the crop, the quantity will increase. There's a lot in a pound, priced at about 35 cents.

Rhubarb pie-eaters will be happy to learn the price of this fruit has dropped slightly. Retailing at about 29 cents, there is a good supply of this hothouse specialty grown in the mainland's Fraser Valley.

Another fresh vegetable that's in the spotlight this weekend is asparagus, arriving in small shipments from the Mexican border. The usual early market price has been anywhere from 69 to 75 cents a pound and this year, we're pleased to report it is 49 cents for a pound of this delectable dish.

★ ★ ★

Another vegetable that is found in most shopping carts these days is carrots, some locals, but mainly California-grown. They come nicely-wrapped and trimmed in cello-bags and sell from 17 cents a pound to three pounds for 43 cents.

★ ★ ★

There's a lot of good cabbage around, mainly from the Imperial Valley in California, where they grow 'em heavy and hard and ideal for making cole slaw.

The lettuce situation is this—the quality is exceptionally good and the prices are high because of the market restrictions where it's grown. It seems there is more than enough and the producers are allowed to ship only three and a half days a week, thus jacking up the prices at this end.

One items that we say "so-long" to this weekend is Brussels sprouts, reaching the end of a very good season. What's on your grocer's shelves is the last of the last crop for a while, so buy now for one last taste of this fine vegetable.

IODE

Esquimalt Chapter, IODE, will hold its annual meeting and dinner on Monday in the Tea Cottage, 852 Fort Street. The meeting will be held at 6 p.m. followed by dinner.
